Target group:

- Ordinary students at Vetmeduni Vienna from all study programmes, who have completed four semesters successfully, except if
 - currently employed by Vetmeduni Vienna (see Funds for participation in a virtual work-shop / online training for academic staff)

Brief description:

- This funding programme supports participation in a virtual work-shop / online training (including Summer School) to learn methods related to their own thesis research in an international setting.
- This funding programme aims to:
 - promote future scientists - internationally and networking
 - promote digital competence
 - promote virtual mobility to create network contacts
 - establish and expand international cooperation
 - increase the international visibility of Vetmeduni Vienna

General funding guidelines:

- PLEASE NOTE that any other available mobility programme that could be used to fund participation in an online event (e.g. CEEPUS III) must be used.
- The receipt of any additional funding must be reported! The IRO takes additional funding into consideration when determining the amount of funding to be granted.
- One (1) grant may be awarded per applicant per calendar year.
- There is no legal entitlement to the award of funding.
- Economic budgeting (use of special rates, e.g. early bird registration etc.) should be factored into the specification of costs.

Application requirements:

- No minimum duration

Application documents:

- Completed application form
- Description of virtual course schedule or online training event (programme)
- Official written confirmation of acceptance for course participation (also possible in e-mail form)
- Letter of reference from the thesis supervisor (template), if applicable
- Current confirmation of registration at Vetmeduni Vienna
- Transcript of records
- Specification of costs

Deadline for submission:

- Ongoing, but at least 1 month before the beginning of planned participation

Financing:

- The extent of funding will be determined in accordance with available resources
- The maximum amount of funding per applicant and calendar year is € 400.00
- Payment (allocation) is made after the stay abroad and only upon presentation of receipts (in original)
- The following receipts are eligible:
 - Registration / Participation fees

After stay abroad:

The following documents must be presented to the International Relations Office (IRO) within two months:

- Official confirmation of participation
- Report of experiences (1 A4 page, according to template)
- Accounting form
- Receipts (in the original): Invoices, credit card statements

Frequently Asked Questions regarding the funding process:
