

Criteria for seminar papers¹

Criteria Minimal scientific working standard	GRADE
	5	4	3	2	1
CONTENT - Is there a clear hypothesis, task or problem formulated? Is there a clear philosophical topic?
- Is the text logical and coherent? Is the argumentation comprehensible?
- Is the topic treated with sufficient accuracy and in a differentiated way?
- Are philosophical terms used in an appropriate, correct, consistent and precise way?
CITATION - Are the quotes unmistakable, complete and consistent?
- Are the quotes integrated in the text in a reasonable way?
BIBLIOGRAPHY - Does it include sufficient literature? - Does it comprise all the quoted sources? - Are all sources quoted consistently? - Are the sources quoted precisely and unmistakably?
FORMALITY - Does the paper meet formal criteria? (Font size: 12p; 1.5 line spacing; length: 15–20 pages)
- Does the paper include the following sections? Front page/Table of contents/Introduction/Main part/Conclusion /Bibliography
SPELLING, GRAMMAR - Does the paper meet the requirements of a publication (correct spelling, grammar and punctuation)?
PLAGIARISM - Has the plagiarism disclaimer been handed in? Has it been observed?	No		Yes

Grade for the seminar paper:

Grade for the course:

Signature Lecturer:

¹ Based on the guidelines “Leitfaden für schriftliche Arbeiten im Bachelorstudium Philosophie” <http://ssc-phil.univie.ac.at/schrift/>; see also: Flatscher, Matthias/Posselt, Gerald/Weiberg, Anja: Einführung in das wissenschaftliche Arbeiten für PhilosophInnen. 2nd, corr. ed., Vienna: Facultas 2007.