

CV of Mag.med.vet. Evelyne Mann-Selberherr, PhD

Personal data

Date of birth 01-13-1985
Place of birth Krems a. d. Donau, Austria
Citizenship Austrian

Higher education

- Jan 2011 Magistra medicinae veterinariae, University of Veterinary Medicine Vienna.
Thesis (written at the Institute for Population Genetics) advised by C. Schlötterer.
- March 2014 PhD (Veterinary Science), summa cum laude. University of Veterinary Medicine Vienna. Main focus: Microbial ecology (advised by M. Wagner and B. Brenig).
- April-Sept 2014 Research stay abroad, Hunter Lab, Dept. for Entomology, University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ, USA. Supervisor: M. Hunter.
- 2014-2015 Post-Doc in the FWF Project „Genetic and cytogenetic bases of Cardinium-caused cytoplasmic incompatibility“ (Project leader: Dr. S. Schmitz-Esser) and in the project „mikrorind“ (Grant from the Province of Niederoesterreich, Project leader: M. Wagner).
- Since Dec 2015 Group leader at the Institute for Milk Hygiene, Milk Technology and Food Science, University of Veterinary Medicine Vienna, Austria.

Appointments

- Since 2012 Teaching assistant, Institute for milk hygiene, milk technology and food science, University of Veterinary Medicine Vienna.
- 2012-2013 Teaching assistant, Faculty of Computer Science, University of Vienna. „RNA Profiling course in microbiology and immunology“.

Awards and scholarships

- 2016 Garant Publication Award
2014 Kardinal-Innitzer Junior Scientist Award
2014 Award of Excellence 2014- The Federal Ministry of Science, Research and Economy
2014 Dr. Maria Schaumayer Foundation
2014 Research scholarship, University of Veterinary Medicine Vienna.
2012 Merit scholarship for excellence during PhD studies, University of Veterinary Medicine Vienna.
2012 Travel funds, Freie Universität Berlin, Germany.