

The way to admission Master's Programme in Comparative Biomedicine

Subject to change without notice

Attention:

Please note that your personal presence at the Vetmeduni in Vienna is required for participation in the aptitude test and admission to the degree program.

Participation in the aptitude test is only possible on the date assigned to the respective applicant in the announcement. A postponement or change is excluded!

Applicants who do not appear or appear too late on the announced dates will be excluded from the admission procedure and admission to the degree programme is not possible.

Persons with impairments or restrictions (physical, mental, chronic, temporary, etc.) please contact zulassung@vetmeduni.ac.at by the end of the cost contribution deadline so that a special arrangement can be made to take the aptitude test if required.

It is not possible to postpone the date of admission to the degree programme!
