

Privacy Policy for Events

With their registration and participation in the event, participants explicitly acknowledge that their personal master data and contact data are processed for the organization of the event. Data and documents related to the event, which result from participation (time and place of the event, list of participants, affiliation to a company, etc.), are also processed.

Participants acknowledge that images for public relations purposes (advertisement and publication of the event, presentation of the University of Veterinary Medicine, Vienna's activities, etc.) are made in the course of the event and published on our websites, on our social media channels and in our print media.

The event-related data and documents mentioned above are stored for seven years after completion of the event. Selected images are archived and published for the duration of the University of Veterinary Medicine, Vienna's existence.

The data are processed on the basis of the following legal provisions (art. 6 par. 1 GDPR):

- "Fulfilling a legal obligation" (art. 6 par. 1 lit. c), to inform the general public about the fulfilment of the University of Veterinary Medicine, Vienna's tasks following § 3 Z 11 University Act 2002 (Universitätsgesetz 2002).
- "Performing a task in the public interest" (art. 6 par. 1 lit. e), for purposes of public relations in science and research.
- "Overriding legitimate interests of the University of Veterinary Medicine, Vienna" (art. 6 par. 1 lit. f), to document activities of the University of Veterinary Medicine, Vienna.
